TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1878.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION FOR 1878.

The Republicans of Maine and all independent voters who are in favor of preserving the credit of the National Government, and a sound currency for the people—equivalent to gold and redeemable in gold—are requested to send delegates to a State Convention to be held in the City Hall at Portland, Tuesday, July 30th, 1878, at 11 o'clock A. M.,

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and transacting any other business that may properly come before the Convention.

The basis of representation will be as follows:—Each city, town and plantation is entitled to one delegate, and one additional delegate for every 70 votes given for the Republican candidate for governor in 1876, one additional vote for each fraction of sixty votes over seventy. Each county will be entitled to one delegate, who is to be selected by the Republican County Committee.

The State Committee will be in session the morning preceding, and as it extends the meeting of the Convention, and will receive credentials of delegates.

JOHN L. STEVENS' DEMONSTRATION.

A Large Attendance.

Many Distinguished Men.

Governor Dingley Nine and Thirteen.

PORTLAND, July 29. The Republican State Convention meets here to-morrow. There will be a large attendance including many distinguished men. Hon. Chas. Stewart L. Woodford of New York will address the Convention. At the meeting of the State Committee to-night, Hon. Lewis Barker of Bangor, was selected as Chairman; F. P. Carroll, of Portland, and George F. Talbot, of Ellsworth, as Secretaries. The Convention will renominate Gov. Connor and adopt presidential hard money resolutions.

FROM PORTLAND.

Ben Wood. Ben Shopped.

PORTLAND, July 29. A letter from the correspondent, Fred The Ebston, to the Advertiser, announces that Louise Lisbon, the sweetheart is not dead as reported, but privately married to Beau, the correct player, who is supposed to have another wife in England.

Awarding Queries.

Miss Lisbon, of St. John, lately of Boston, jumped off Deering's bridge to-day, but was rescued and taken to the Alms House.

MARINE DISASTER.

Vessel Wrecked.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29. The steamer Pennsylvania arrives, last night and reports that on the night of the 28th during a fog, collided with prior S. D. Hume, Captain Deggins, (of Eastport) from Richmond to Gloucester, Eng., with lumber. A boat was launched from the Pennsylvania and Captain Diggins, his wife and crew, 10 persons in all, were transferred from the wreck to the steamer. Captain Diggins reports the steamer sloping for Fog Bank, but it was not heard after nor seen to enter the Channel.

New York, July 29. The schooner R. L. Rankin of Portland, was ashore at the Gulf of Inagua at Grand, at the east end of St. Domingo. Crew saved. The vessel and cargo are a total loss.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

A Shocking Bible Record.

GILFORD, N. H., July 29. For the twelve years during which God has made my life miserable, I have been married to a woman by the name of Deborah A. Weeks, and on the 29th day of July, A. D. 1876, at the residence of Abner and Hiram Weeks, in the town of Gilford, I forgot myself and my God, and he was forced to do violence to a helpless young man, whom he met in the road. He then broke my arms, legs, and ribs, and then cut my throat with a knife, and I am now dead. I have been married to a fiend in human shape, and have been treated worse than a dog. I have been driven from my home, and compelled to live with my children in the woods. I have been driven from my home by my wife, and compelled to live with my children in the woods. I have been driven from my home by my wife, and compelled to live with my children in the woods. I have been driven from my home by my wife
